

CADC Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does CADC stand for in addiction counseling certification?

- A) Certified Alcohol and Drug Counselor
- B) California Addiction Development Center
- C) Community Addiction and Dependency Care
- D) Clinical Assessment and Diagnostic Center

2. According to the biopsychosocial model, which factors contribute to addiction?

- A) Biological factors only
- B) Psychological factors only
- C) Biological, psychological, and social factors
- D) Social factors only

3. What is the primary focus of harm reduction strategies in addiction treatment?

- A) Complete abstinence immediately
- B) Reducing negative consequences of drug use
- C) Increasing drug use gradually
- D) Avoiding all treatment interventions

4. Which ethical principle requires counselors to maintain client information as confidential?

- A) Autonomy
- B) Beneficence
- C) Confidentiality
- D) Justice

Answers: 1-A 2-C 3-B 4-C

For More CADC Questions and Answers FREE, CADC Online Prep Training, CADC Exam, CADC Study Guide, CADC Flashcards, CADC Quizzes visit:

CADC Practice Test