

CNA Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. When assisting a resident with personal hygiene, a CNA should:

- A) Complete the task as quickly as possible
- B) Provide privacy and encourage independence when safe
- C) Do everything for the resident to save time
- D) Only help when specifically asked

2. What is the most important action before transferring a resident from bed to wheelchair?

- A) Check that the wheelchair brakes are locked
- B) Raise the bed to its highest position
- C) Remove the wheelchair footrests
- D) Position the wheelchair at the foot of the bed

3. A resident's vital signs include temperature of 102°F, pulse 110, respirations 28, and blood pressure 90/60. The CNA should:

- A) Document the findings and continue routine care
- B) Report the findings to the nurse immediately
- C) Retake the vital signs in one hour
- D) Give the resident extra fluids

4. When caring for a resident with dementia who becomes agitated, the CNA should:

- A) Speak loudly to get their attention
- B) Restrain the resident for safety
- C) Use a calm voice and redirect their attention
- D) Leave the resident alone until they calm down

Answers: 1-B 2-A 3-B 4-C

For More CNA Questions and Answers FREE, CNA Online Prep Training, CNA Exam, CNA Study Guide, CNA Flashcards, CNA Quizzes visit:

CNA Practice Test