

CRNI Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does CRNI stand for in infusion nursing?

- A) Certified Registered Nurse Infusion
- B) Clinical Registered Nursing Instructor
- C) Certified Rehabilitation Nursing Institute
- D) Central Registry for Nursing Interventions

2. What is the primary focus of infusion nursing practice?

- A) General medical care
- B) Intravenous therapy and vascular access management
- C) Surgical procedures
- D) Emergency response

3. Which complication is most concerning with central venous access devices?

- A) Minor bruising
- B) Central line-associated bloodstream infection (CLABSI)
- C) Temporary discomfort
- D) Skin irritation

4. What is the recommended frequency for flushing a peripheral IV line?

- A) Once per week
- B) Every 8-12 hours or per facility policy
- C) Only when problems occur
- D) Once per month

Answers: 1-A 2-B 3-B 4-B

For More CRNI Questions and Answers FREE, CRNI Online Prep Training, CRNI Exam, CRNI Study Guide, CRNI Flashcards, CRNI Quizzes visit:

CRNI Practice Test