

DLAB Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. In a hypothetical language, "kata" means "house" and "malit" means "small." What would "malit kata" most likely mean?

- A) Big house
- B) Small house
- C) House small
- D) Two houses

2. If "zip" means "to run" and "zipped" means "ran," what would "zipping" most likely mean?

- A) Will run
- B) Running
- C) Has run
- D) Might run

3. In a language where word order follows Subject-Object-Verb pattern, how would "The boy eats an apple" be arranged?

- A) Boy apple eats
- B) Eats boy apple
- C) Apple boy eats
- D) Boy eats apple

4. If "belu" means "water," "tanu" means "cold," and "pelu" means "drink," what would "tanu belu pelu" most likely mean?

- A) Cold water to drink
- B) Drink cold water
- C) Water cold drink
- D) Cold drink water

Answers: 1-B 2-B 3-A 4-B

For More DLAB Questions and Answers FREE, DLAB Online Prep Training, DLAB Exam, DLAB Study Guide, DLAB Flashcards, DLAB Quizzes visit:

DLAB Practice Test