

EHR Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does EHR stand for in healthcare technology?

- A) Electronic Health Record
- B) Emergency Hospital Response
- C) Electronic Health Registry
- D) Enhanced Health Resources

2. Which federal law requires healthcare providers to protect patient health information in EHR systems?

- A) HITECH Act
- B) HIPAA
- C) Affordable Care Act
- D) Medicare Access Act

3. What is the primary benefit of using EHR systems over paper records?

- A) Lower initial costs
- B) Improved accessibility and coordination of care
- C) Elimination of all medical errors
- D) Reduced need for healthcare staff

4. Which feature is essential for EHR interoperability?

- A) Color-coded interfaces
- B) Standardized data formats and protocols
- C) Touch screen capabilities
- D) Voice recognition software

Answers: 1-A 2-B 3-B 4-B

For More EHR Questions and Answers FREE, EHR Online Prep Training, EHR Exam, EHR Study Guide, EHR Flashcards, EHR Quizzes visit:

EHR Practice Test