

GROL Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does GROL stand for in FCC licensing?

- A) General Radiotelephone Operator License
- B) Global Radio Operations License
- C) Government Radio Operations License
- D) General Radio Operator License

2. What is the primary purpose of the GROL license?

- A) Amateur radio operation
- B) Commercial radio equipment operation and maintenance
- C) Television broadcasting only
- D) Emergency communications only

3. Which frequency range requires GROL licensing for commercial operation?

- A) Only VHF frequencies
- B) Frequencies above 3 MHz
- C) Only UHF frequencies
- D) All radio frequencies

4. How long is a GROL license valid?

- A) 2 years
- B) 5 years
- C) 10 years
- D) Lifetime

Answers: 1-A 2-B 3-B 4-D

For More GROL Questions and Answers FREE, GROL Online Prep Training, GROL Exam, GROL Study Guide, GROL Flashcards, GROL Quizzes visit:

GROL Practice Test