

NWSA Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does NWSA stand for in workplace safety assessment?

- A) National Workplace Safety Association
- B) National Workers Safety Assessment
- C) Northwest Safety Association
- D) National Workplace Safety Academy

2. What is the primary purpose of a Job Safety Analysis (JSA)?

- A) To increase productivity
- B) To identify hazards and develop safe work procedures
- C) To reduce labor costs
- D) To monitor employee performance

3. According to the hierarchy of hazard controls, what is the most effective control method?

- A) Personal protective equipment
- B) Administrative controls
- C) Elimination
- D) Engineering controls

4. What does the acronym WHMIS stand for in Canada?

- A) Workplace Hazardous Materials Information System
- B) Workers Health and Medical Information Service
- C) Workplace Health Management Information System
- D) Workers Hazardous Materials Identification System

Answers: 1-A 2-B 3-C 4-A

For More NWSA Questions and Answers FREE, NWSA Online Prep Training, NWSA Exam, NWSA Study Guide, NWSA Flashcards, NWSA Quizzes visit:

NWSA Practice Test