

TAGME Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does TAGME stand for in medical education?

- A) Teaching and Graduate Medical Education
- B) Technical Assessment of Graduate Medical Excellence
- C) Training and General Medical Evaluation
- D) Transitional Assessment for Graduate Medical Education

2. What is the primary purpose of TAGME status?

- A) To provide permanent medical licensing
- B) To allow temporary practice while seeking residency placement
- C) To grant specialty board certification
- D) To authorize independent medical practice

3. How long is TAGME status typically valid?

- A) 6 months
- B) 1 year
- C) 2 years
- D) 5 years

4. What type of supervision is required for physicians with TAGME status?

- A) No supervision required
- B) Indirect supervision only
- C) Direct supervision by licensed physician
- D) Peer supervision only

Answers: 1-A 2-B 3-B 4-C

For More TAGME Questions and Answers FREE, TAGME Online Prep Training, TAGME Exam, TAGME Study Guide, TAGME Flashcards, TAGME Quizzes visit:

TAGME Practice Test